Wilderness Wind

nurtures relationships to God and creation through wilderness living which promotes spirituality, cooperation, and environmental sustainability.

Wilderness Wind is a nonprofit corporation that has a 20-acre base camp and 3.5 acres of Lakeside property located close to Ely, Minnesota. Wilderness Wind is a member of Mennonite Camping Association and the Central Plains Mennonite Conference.

Steve Martin has over 20 years of fresh water fishing experience. He looks forward to sharing with each trip participant some of what he has learned over the years. Steve says, "I have great memories of exploring new water, the camaraderie of my friends, and the challenge of figuring out where the fish were and what it would take to get them to bite. The wilderness coupled with the connection to nature through a small strand of monofilament and a jig has a purity and perfection to it. Self propelled, close to the water, I experience this connection in a deeper way than ever before."

The charm of fishing is that it is the pursuit of what is elusive but attainable, a perpetual series of occasions for hope. ~John Buchan

Smallmouth Bass Fishing Trip

Registration

Imagine yourself in the wilderness. It's early June and it's smallmouth spawning season. The fish are lurking in the shallows, hungry, and ready for a bite. You have six days to fish, enjoy the wilderness setting, and listen to, reflect with, and learn from other fishing enthusiasts. If this sounds like a good time, join us for some unforgettable days in the canoe country.

We will head into the Canadian Quetico, where we will set up a base camp and spend six days fishing for smallmouth bass, walleye, and northern pike. The goal isn't just to catch fish, but to encounter the natural world. If you love fishing, then come and experience it in a new way. If you love wilderness canoeing, and want to learn to fish, that works as well.

Day 1: June 4th: Arrive at Wilderness Wind by 3:00pm

Introductions, pre-trip preparations (route and canoe information, safety review, pack gear, and food), purchase fishing licenses and additional gear as needed. Settle into Wilderness Wind for supper and prepare for an early departure the next morning.

Day 2: Drive to the Boundary Waters entry point, Moose Lake, to begin tow to Canadian Customs and Quetico.* After a good paddle, and camp set up, you can enjoy the evening topwater bites and have fresh fish for supper.

Day 3-6: The best spring spots are already marked on the map. We'll figure out the patterns, what baits are working, and share our tips to ensure that we all are on the fish. Everyone will have a chance for the guided fishing experience. With prime fishing time in the morning and evening, afternoons will allow for personal time and group discussions. Daily reflections from the writings of David James Duncan and other wilderness philosophers will provide food for thought as we cast, seek, and paddle.

Day 7: Paddle back to Moose Lake landing and return to Wilderness Wind. Clean gear and selves. Gather for celebration supper and story telling.. Watch the sunset and enjoy a nights rest (or fishing) at the Wilderness Wind Lakeside cabins.

Day 8: June 11th: Departure from Wilderness Wind

 Please note, all participants are required to complete a Remote Area B Border Crossing Permit (RABC) in order to cross into Canada. This process takes from 4-6 weeks. Please see the link from the Wilderness Wind Programmed Retreat's page and apply early.*
